BMX RACING

PRACTICES: TUESDAYS 6:00PM-8:00PM

RACES: .....FRIDAYS 7:00PM
.....SATURDAYS 10:00AM

In the Winter of 1984, Bicycle Motocross (BMX) Racing was introduced to Burlington and it has been popular ever since. The track is located in Fairchild Park off of Cloverdale Street, behind the Burlington Athletic Stadium. This fast action packed sport starts in March with races every Friday night at 7:00pm or Saturday morning at 10:00am and is sanctioned under the American Bicycle Association (ABA). There are four skill levels: beginner, novice, expert and professional. Riders race with other riders in the same skill and age levels. This track is one of three ABA tracks in North Carolina. Practices are on Tuesday nights from 6:00pm-8:00pm. See the best in BMX competition whether it's a State Championship, Race For Life, or the Redline Cup Qualifier. For more information on racing or to become a member of the Burlington BMX Parent Association, call 228-9269 or 229-3148.

February*Super Bowl Chili Cook-Off

Sunday, February 6th • 3:00pm • Entry Fee: $5.00

Thataways Teen Center

The 39th Annual Super Bowl will be on Saturday, February 6th, in the Alltel Stadium in Jacksonville, Florida, which is the same day as our "Super Bowl Chili Cook-Off". Entries can either be bean or bean-less chili recipes. All entries are required to prepare at least 3 quarts of chili & you must prepare your chili before arriving at the center. Prizes will be given for 1st, 2nd & 3rd places. After the chili simmers, it will be an "All-You-Can-Eat Chili Supper" at 5:00pm, which will include all entries of chili beans, crackers & beverage for $ 3.00 per person. Following dinner watch the Super Bowl on the huge wide screen for everyone to enjoy. Start preparing now for your famous bean or bean-less chili recipe. We will see who has the best chili in Burlington this winter? For more information or to register call 229-3148 or 222-5134.

Burlington One-Tenth International Tricycle Race

Sunday, February 20th • 3:00pm • Admissions: Free • Thataways Teen Center

Ladies & Gentlemen...start your engines & put your feet on your pedals it's time to race! The Recreation & Parks Department wants you to be involved with the first ever "One-Tenth International Tricycle Race" on GIANT tricycles in the parking lot of Thataways Teen Center. This is the same date that the 2005 NASCAR season begins with the Daytona 500. So what better way to celebrate the new season, then to have our first tricycle race? There will be seven age group divisions (0-5, 6 -8, 9-11, 12-14, 15-17 & 18 & up). A senior tour group will take place for those who cannot remember their age, so this is an event for everyone! Prizes will be awarded to winners & runner-ups in each division. Everyone is encouraged to come in their favorite driver's racing attire and the best-dressed will also be awarded prizes. Be sure to bring your own helmet, elbow & knee pads just in case. Your giant tricycle will be supplied, all you have to do is pedal to the finish line. This event will be free for the entire family. For more information, call 229-3148 or 222-5134.

March*Lawn Care & Landscaping Day

Saturday, March 5th • 2:00pm-5:00pm • Admission: Free • Thataways Teen Center

With the lawn care season at rest now, you will have the opportunity to get your lawnmowers and other gardening tools into shape during this first time event. Get ideas for lawn and garden tips for the upcoming spring season. A local lawn & garden professional will be on hand to give you advice on cutting grass, seeding, planting, scheduling lawnmower repairs & service and give you ideas on what you should be doing now for the upcoming months ahead. Don't wait until the busy time gets here, do it early and save money and time. For more information or to be a vendor in this program, call 229-3148 or 222-5134.

When: Tuesday &amp; Thursday 5pm - 6:30pm

Where: BAC Swimming Pool

Swim Club Fees:$85.00 Burlington Residents, Shark Participants$150.00 Non-Residents

What: The BAC has started it's first age group to adult swim club! Our swim club has been created based on the desire of children in Alamance county seeking stroke enhancement instruction.

Furthermore, this club allows for distance training, skill refinement, and competition if desired. Our club will practice through May 5, 2005. If you are interested in learning more about the BAC swim club please come to a practice or call Mary Pollok at the BAC (336) 222-5043.

Water Safety "Day" Classes

The American Red Cross (ARC) encourages children 6 months to adults to learn how to be safe in, on, and around water. Furthermore, they have specialized classes such as baby sitters, first aid, CPR, and swim lessons to name a few. The Burlington Aquatic Center in conjunction with the ARC offers water safety classes on Tuesdays & Thursdays for five weeks. The classes are thirty minutes long and will include individualized topics such as stroke technique, deep water survival & diving, first aid, etc. This is a great opportunity for home school children as well as school groups. The fee is $35.00. Please speak to the Aquatic Director when calling the BAC for more information (336) 222-5043
